

JAPAN AND RUSSIA

Indications Are That the Two Countries Have Reached an Amicable Agreement.

THE LATTER REOCCUPIES MUKDEN

It is Thought Japan Was Tempted Into Acquiescence in Return For Concessions Made in Corea.

The Reported Tripartite Understanding Between Russia, Germany and Japan Are of Far Reaching International Significance.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Diplomats here say the cable from St. Petersburg telling of Russia's reoccupation of Mukden indicates an agreement between Russia and Japan by which the former is to have free swing in Manchuria so far as Japan is concerned.

Mr. Kagora Takahira, the Japanese minister, said Thursday night that he had read the cablegram with deep interest, but was still without confirmation. The minister seemed to be more hopeful of a satisfactory conclusion of the Tokio negotiations but said positively that he had not been advised that any agreement had been reached. Nor would he comment on the charge that Japan had been tempted by Russia into acquiescence in the latter's occupation of Manchuria in return for concessions in Corea.

Mr. Takahira thought it possible that the reoccupation of Mukden was necessitated by a movement of Russian troops and that the occupation would not be for long. He pointed out that Russia had agreed to the opening of Mukden to the world's commerce and said he did not think it necessary for Russian troops to remain there to carry out this promise. European diplomats say that the reports of a tripartite understanding between Russia, Germany and Japan for the management of affairs in the far east are of far reaching international significance, but it is declared no official news has been received by them on the subject.

Paris, Oct. 30.—Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador to the United States, who is now in Paris, was not surprised to hear that the Russian troops had re-entered Mukden, in view of the conditions there. He said that the experience of the Russian authorities was that as soon as they surrendered the district to the Chinese the latter are unable to preserve order; disturbances occur and foreign interests are menaced. The ambassador added that the return of the Russian troops did not affect the status of Mukden as an open port, in accordance with the treaty between the United States and China.

The blockade of the port of Puerto Plata, on the north coast of Santo Domingo, which is held by the revolutionists, has caused provisions there to become very dear.

A force of Dominican revolutionists has occupied Cotuy.

It is presumed that the Dominican government forces will be concentrated at the capital, where heavy fighting is expected to take place.

The fire is supposed to have started from a stove. Damage to the building, furniture and books will not exceed $500.

W. H. Julian was a brother of Ira Julian, who was a candidate for the nomination for attorney general at the recent democratic primaries. The latter had been rooming with him until a short time ago, when he removed to the home of a relative on account of his health.

DAUGHTER OF GEN. WM. BOOTH.

Col. T. C. Holland, an Officer of the Salvation Army Was Fatally Hurt and is Dying.

Gen. William Booth, Commander-in-Chief, Sends a Message to Salvationists Throughout the World Concerning Her Demise.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Emma Booth-Tucker, second daughter of Gen. William Booth, head of the Salvation army, was almost instantly killed in a wreck on the main line of the Santa Fe, near Dean Lake. Her body was terribly crushed, and she died an hour after being taken from the debris. Fourteen other passengers were injured, three probably fatally.

With the wounded, Mrs. Booth-Tucker's body was taken to Marceline and shipped from that point to Chicago, where her husband awaits it.

Col. T. C. Holland, an officer in the Salvation army, was found near where Mrs. Booth-Tucker was picked up. His injuries will prove fatal.

Mrs. Booth-Tucker was on her way from a visit to the army farm colony at Amity, Col., to Chicago, where she expected to meet her husband.

Among the injured are Mrs. L. N. Kirk and two children and Mrs. Ella Kirk, all of New Castle, Ind.

The Salvation army citadel at 5 o'clock received a telegram from Fort Madison, Ia., saying Col. Holland could live only a few minutes.

London, Oct. 30.—Gen. Wm. Booth, commander-in-chief of the Salvation army, has sent the following message to Salvationists throughout the world concerning the tragic death of his daughter, Mrs. Booth-Tucker:

"I am suddenly prostrated with grief in the presence of what appears at the moment to be an indescribable calamity and an unfathomable mystery. I can only look up and say to my Heavenly Father, 'Thy will be done.'"

"My daughter was, after her mother, first among the many noble and consecrated women I have been permitted to know during the 50 years of my public life. Her loss is irreparable, but so much more need is there for me, for you and for us all to go on with our work for God and the blessing of our fellow men. This, however my heart may bleed, is my purpose so long as He may be pleased to prolong my life.

"The blow will fall with intense severity upon Commander Booth-Tucker and on my officers and soldiers in America, for whom my daughter has fought and toiled so long. In the midst of my own sorrow my heart goes up to God on their behalf. Pray for them. Meanwhile, I am trusting for strength to go on with my own duties and praying that our great agency of alleviating the sorrows of the suffering world may not be hindered by this visitation."

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Mrs. Booth-Tucker's body reached Chicago Thursday night on a Santa Fe train. Several hundred members of the army were at the depot when the train arrived and escorted the body to an undertaking establishment in State street. Friday morning the body will be removed to the Princess rink, one of the Chicago branch headquarters of the army, where it will lie in state until Friday night, when it will be removed to New York and later it may be sent to London for burial.

CAPTAIN STONE CORRECTS FALSE REPORT.

Captain W. J. Stone, of Kuttawa, Lyon County, who has been a life-long Democrat, has announced his intention of voting the Republican ticket this fall, and thinks that it has an excellent chance to win. Captain Stone was a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor in 1899 and was one of the victims of the infamous Music Hall convention.—Public Ledger.

The above is a repetition of a report that is being industriously circulated over the State. Captain Stone ought to know how he is going to vote, and this is what he says about it:

KUTTAWA, October 28.—Colonel W. J. Stone, former Democratic Congressman, was in the crowd which greeted Governor Beckham and party to-day and was an interested listener. To a press representative he denied that the Republicans had any authority for claiming his support. Moreover, he said he was for the entire Democratic ticket and was asking his friends to vote for it. The fact that Colonel Stone was back in the fold was pleasing information to those on the Democratic special, as he had not acted with the party since 1899.

What it Means.

"The amendment to the Constitution, which is to be submitted to the people at the coming November election for their approval, confers upon the General Assembly the power to pass general laws authorizing the cities and towns of the State to substitute an income, license, or franchise tax, for the ad valorem tax upon personal property. It is exclusively in the interest of the corporations and accumulated wealth. It nullifies and sets aside the uniformity of taxation so carefully established by the framers of the Constitution.

"If this amendment should meet with the approval of the people, it will re-establish the tax-dodger in his old business of corrupting municipal authorities in order that the poor may be made to pay the taxes of the rich. The authorities of any municipality can, for instance, provide, by ordinance, that a license tax of say $100 per year be imposed upon those doing business as bankers, and that this tax is to take the place of the ad valorem tax upon personal property of the banks. Thus the municipalities will lose the taxes upon the millions of dollars constituting the capital stock and surplus of the banks. This loss must be met by increasing the tax rate on the small home of the citizen. The personal property of all corporations and businesses may in this manner be granted immunity from taxation.

"After 12 years of litigation, after the courts have finally determined that the banks must pay the taxes upon their property as other owners of property, the people are asked to open up the question and relieve the banks and the other moneyed institutions of the State from the payment of their part of the necessary expenses of the administration of the government.

"All lovers of good government and fair taxation should vote against this proposed amendment."

Democrats Must Get Out Their Vote.

If you want the State to go Democratic you must vote. This is no joke.

NOW, BE GOOD.

Ex-Governor Bradley Was Anxious to Assist in Collecting the War Claim.

Col. Forrester, Another Republican, Believes Calhoun Could Have Made Better Contract With Republican Administration.

Our R-publican friends who have been beating the air and orating about the commission paid Captain Calhoun for collecting Kentucky's war claim will now probably subside and take a much needed rest.

In a speech made to a crowd that filled every part of space in the Auditorium at Louisville Wednesday night, Gov. Beckham delivered a final blow to the pretensions of the Republicans who have attacked Captain Calhoun's fee.

The Governor read a letter that ex-Gov. Bradley wrote to Captain Calhoun offering his services in collecting the claim, and a letter from Col. Walter Forrester, Gov. Bradley's Assistant Adjutant General, in which Col. Forrester said he had investigated the claim, but at no time thought it possible to collect more than $100,000. Forrester said he was certain Gov. Bradley's administration would have paid a contingent fee of 25 per cent. for the collection of the claim. The fee Captain Calhoun got under the contract with Gov. Beckham was only 5½ per cent.

Below the letters from ex-Gov. Bradley and Col. Forrester are published:

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 19, 1902.

Private—Dear Captain: I notice that a bill has been passed, authorizing the employment of counsel in collection of Kentucky's war claim. I write merely to suggest that I might be of some assistance and will thank you if you see fit to make some suggestion concerning the matter. Your friend,

W. O. BRADLEY.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 26, 1903.

Gen. David R. Murray, Frankfort, Ky.—Dear Sir: In answer to your inquiries in regard to the Kentucky Civil war claim against the United States Government, I will state that in the year 1896 I learned of the decision in the New York case, and I at once set about to enforce the collection of the claim of Kentucky, and for this purpose I went to Washington in January, 1897, and collected data and decisions which convinced me that Kentucky could recover something near one hundred thousand. I came back to Frankfort and laid the whole matter before the Governor, and it seemed little faith was placed by the State administration in the success of prosecuting the claim, and the Governor and Auditor decided that they would not advance expenses, etc., and the matter was dropped, as I did not feel justified in advancing my own money. I had no doubt if I had done so I would have received a contingent fee of 25 per cent. if I had taken the risk of collection. I feel as if I did all I could do to set on foot this claim, and I am glad you stated that the records show at least some of my efforts.

So little faith was given to my opinion that the claim could be successfully prosecuted that a fee of 25 per cent. would not have been considered more than right, for one who would take the risk. I think the criticism of Calhoun, who did take the risk on a contingency, is unjust, and no one suspected that anything like a million dollars could be realized until discovered by you and Captain Calhoun. I believe that Captain Calhoun could have made a better contract with the former administration than the one under which he acted. Very respectfully,

WALTER S. FORRESTER,

Formerly Assistant Adj't. General of Kentucky

The Cloak and Suit Business Centers Here

Your Cloaks and suits are beautiful! Nothing like them anywhere. Such expressions of pleasure we hear daily. The fact is that if our sales keep up at the same rate till November we will have sold as many Cloaks and Suits by the first of November as we did the entire season last year, and last year was the largest season in the history of this store. SIX WEEKS SPENT IN NEW YORK with Cloak and Suit houses has proved a wise act. The styles here are correct. The prices are right—and right at the start—marked in plain figures so that you will be treated as well as your neighbor. THIS IS THE ONLY DRY GOODS HOUSE IN MAYSVILLE THAT IS NOT AFRAID TO MARK ITS PRICES IN PLAIN FIGURES. The wise shopper does at first what others do at last—comes to Merz Bros.

ONE HOUSE BURNED

And Two More Badly Damaged by Fire on Carmel Street Last Evening. Loss $1,500.

A one-story frame cottage occupied by Mr. Rial Kennedy on Carmel street, south of Third, was destroyed by fire last evening shortly after 5 o'clock. The adjoining houses, a one-story frame occupied by Mr. John Pendergrast, and a two-story occupied by Mr. William Wise, were both badly damaged.

Mr. Kennedy lost all his household goods and Mr. Pendergrast also lost most of his furniture. Neither had any insurance. Mr. Wise, who had his household goods insured, succeeded in saving most of it, but in a somewhat damaged condition.

All three of the buildings belonged to Mr. R. M. Wallingford, who resides and conducts a grocery near by. He places his loss at about $1,500. The buildings were not insured. It is not known how the fire started, but it is thought to have been caused by a gasoline explosion.

The Limestone Fire Company rendered splendid service in extinguishing the flames, and Mr. Wallingford wishes to thank them for their work. In this connection it might be added that the fire was practically over before the Washington and Neptune bells sounded the alarm.

A WOMAN'S CREDENTIALS

To society are signed by her shoes. No fashionableness of costume will cover a neglect of footwear. But with the feet and hands properly encased, she cannot go far wrong. shoe. Make this your passport and escape all criticism.

An Open Fireplace Has Charms

Which no one will question. The blazing wood, the crackling logs, carry us back to the way our ancestors spent their winter evenings. But the wide stone hearths and bare floors are no more. The carpet and comfortable rugs before the modern fireplace now are a source of danger as well as comfort. If you are fortunate enough to have a fireplace, get all the pleasure from it you can, but don't run the risk of a fire. If there are children, more is the reason why you should be careful.
